Southern States Group

Premier manufacturer in the transport industry

Southern States Group is a dedicated industry leading company that supplies both products and services for the Transport Refrigeration, Air Conditioning, and Tail Lift Industry. They had identified the need to update areas of the busy production areas to a better more efficient form of lighting. The Green Guys Group were the obvious choice, with our high quality fittings and long term solutions. A plan was worked out and install completed in line with a busy production schedule. The result was a greatly improved working environment and substantial energy and maintenance savings.
